The students in Mrs. Martin's 4th grade classes in the Homer Intermediate School are on a mission! Our mission is to bring some joy to children around the country this holiday season. The teachers and students would like to join forces with Scholastic to collect NEW pajamas and books for needy children to have this holiday season. We would like to ask the community/parents to support our efforts. The pajamas and books are going to go to needy children who are living in foster homes, group homes, shelters, as well as families impacted by Hurricane Sandy. Any size will do as long as they are new! Donated PJ's and books can be brought to the Homer Intermediate School and left for Connie Martin or they can be mailed to Connie Martin 58 Clinton Street, Homer, NY 13077. More information about this worthy cause can be found at www.scholastic.com/pjdrive. Thank you for your support!!
