

SUBJECT: CENSORSHIP

It is the policy of the Board of Education of Homer Central School that there shall be no system of censoring literary works. Furthermore, reading materials or books used for class study of material too new or unfamiliar or controversial for any teacher to permit immediate approval for such study, will be screened as follows:

- a) Appropriateness to group;
- b) Literary and human values commensurate with time to be spent;
- c) Agreement of the majority of department members in questionable cases.
